Two popular little French books which contain the requisite text and a very definite method for teaching

Everyday, Conversational French

MON PETIT TROTT. A modern French classic by André Lichtenberger, edited and adapted for school use by Léopold Cardon. A charming story creating a thoroughly French atmosphere. Vocabulary rich in words and expressions about common things of present-day life.

A LA MAISON FRANCAISE. By Cardon and Weeks. The action takes place for the most part at the French House of one of our large universities, the same characters appearing throughout, attending recitations, skating, motoring, entertaining, traveling, etc.

Skillfully planned exercises in both books, providing the best kind of drill
